Directors' Remuneration Policy

1. Purpose

The objective of this Policy is to set out to set out (a) the relevant laws and regulations for payment of remuneration to the Bank's Board members, and (b) the process for establishing and paying that remuneration for each financial year. The relevant laws and regulations are the (a) the Central Bank's Corporate Governance Regulations (Circular No.:83/2019 dated July 18, 2019), (b) the Central Bank's Corporate Governance Standards for Banks (related to Circular No.:83/2019 dated July 18, 2019), (c) the Securities & Commodities Authority (SCA) Chairman's Resolution No. 03/TM of 2020 Regarding the Approval of the Public Joint-Stock Companies Governance Guide and (d) the Commercial Companies Law (as defined below). Extracts from these laws and regulations are set out in Schedule 1.

2. Parameters for Board Remuneration

2.1 In accordance with the Corporate Governance Regulations, the Board shall:

- (a) receive compensation comprising of a fixed annual amount;
- (b) receive compensation relating to their service on the Board and on Board Committees with greater weight applied to chairing such board committees; Board Committee fees will be paid quarterly, or as otherwise agreed by the Board;
- (c) be reimbursed direct costs related to performing their duties; and
- (d) be provided with all the details of his/her compensation in the Director's appointment letter.

Such payments may include the value of other non monetary benefits, such as healthcare or insurance.

2.2 The total compensation provided to the Chairman and the Board shall neither:

- (a) exceed 10% of the Bank's net profit; nor
- (b) include bonus or any incentive-based mechanisms based on the performance of the Bank.

2.3 Negative financial performance or net loss reported by the Bank in a financial year should generally lead to a contraction of the Board's total compensation.

3. Process for approval of Board remuneration

3.1 The Board Nomination, Remuneration & ESG Committee will consider Board remuneration at the end of each financial year and make an assessment of a suitable level of remuneration to be paid considering the Bank's performance, the remuneration paid to directors by peer banks and relevant regulatory requirements. The Committee will then make a recommendation to the full Board as to the amount to be paid for the relevant financial year. If such recommendation is approved, it will be put to the Bank's annual general assembly for approval, following which the remuneration will be paid.

3.2 The Board Nomination, Remuneration & ESG Committee will also review the amounts paid to Board members for their service on Board committees on a regular basis and in all cases no less than once in every two years. In the event that the Committee recommends to make a change to such amounts, then the matter will be considered by the full Board. In the event that the full Board approves the recommendations of the Committee, the sums paid to Board members for their services on Board

4. Review and administration of the Policy

Board Nomination, Remuneration & ESG Committee shall review this Policy and make annual recommendations to the Board on the level of Directors' remuneration, taking into consideration the amount of time they give to the Bank, as well as the extent and complexity of their responsibilities, including serving on Board committees.

5. Updates

This Policy shall be revised as frequently as may be required by law or regulations.
